

Resources for Wagner Community Members

As Dean Glied emphasized earlier this term, diversity and inclusiveness are integral to our mission, our values, and our public service work.

We always want to provide all members of our community with support, but this is especially important when we know so many of you have questions and concerns about a range of current issues that include immigration, wellness, and public safety. We have compiled the following list of resources for your reference.

Please remember that you can always seek assistance from the Student Services team as well as other staff and faculty.

Message from President Andrew Hamilton:

President Hamilton's letter to the University Senate reinforces NYU's unwavering commitment to protecting all students, faculty, and staff and enumerates relevant policies and activities which are critical to this endeavor.

Immigration

Office of Global Services:

NYU's Office of Global Services (OGS) provides visa and immigration services and programs to NYU's international students and their dependents. They advise on immigration regulations in the US and visas needed outside of the US for NYU purposes.

Immigrant Rights Clinic:

NYU will be posting guidance to help immigrant and undocumented members of our community navigate the evolving situation with regard to national policy on immigration. Those who need immediate legal assistance can start by approaching the NYU Immigrant Rights Clinic through Professor Alina Das, who has graciously offered assistance and guidance through the clinic.

Wellness

NYU Wellness Exchange:

The Wellness Exchange facilitates your access to the University's extensive health and mental health resources. Their hotline is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Contact them if you just need to talk, if you want to help a friend, or if you'd like to be put in touch with professionals who can help you to address day-to-day challenges as well as other health-related concerns.

Public Safety

NYU Bias Response Line:

NYU is committed to fostering a diverse, equitable, and inclusive environment. Contact the NYU Bias Response Line to report an experience of bias, discrimination, or harassment in any of three ways:

1. 212-998-2277
2. bias.response@nyu.edu
3. nyu.edu/biasresponse

NYU Public Safety:

NYU Public Safety is committed to providing a safe environment to NYU students, faculty, and staff. The Public Safety Command Center, located at 7 Washington Place, is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week, with officers available to provide assistance in both emergency and non-emergency situations.
